The Princeton Art Museum's free, live lecture, "Losing Picasso: The Challenges of Condensing a Life," happens at 5:30 pm on February 18. See description and register here: <https://artmuseum.princeton.edu/calendar/2021-02/lecture-losing-picasso-challenges-condensing-life>

Peter's Valley jewelry artist, Donald Friedlich, will hold a free webinar about his work on February 24. Register here: <https://petersvalley.org/event/7217/>

Artists on Film and Demos

Peter Brown is a plein air painter who works in oils. Some free videos can be seen here: <https://www.peterbrownneac.com/videos/>

Jane Duke is a printmaker with several process videos: <https://www.janeduke.com/videos.html>

Matt White is a watercolorist who offers monthly demos on his website for a fee.

<https://www.mwhiteart.com/> I follow him on Twitter where he often posts work, and occasionally, free demos. This winter street scene demo was posted on our Facebook page. Link to free Youtube video:
